

Please do not temper with the current "no call law". Since its implementation I have peace and quiet in the evenings, don't take that away from those of us that don't want to be disturbed at home.